TOP of the list of 'must see' destinations are 'The Awesome Foursome' and what better way to see these countries than on a Round The World ticket.

With a total tour distance of 29,000 and some great offers at the moment, the 2011 – 2012 season is seeing a huge surge in business. But before we start the planning, why not drop in at our Travel Ideas Fair, talk to our experts and discuss your ideas with us.

'The awesome foursome!'

NEW ZEALAND

From Cape Reinga at the tip of North Island to Stewart Island at the bottom of South Island, is full of excitement, stunning vistas and amazing National Parks. Walkers, food and wine enthusiasts, film buffs and adrenaline lovers are all assured of a fabulous trip.

CANADA

Visit CANADA and you can ski at Whistler in the majestic Rocky Mountains, home of the Winter Olympics 2010. Visit Canada in the Summer and you can stay in one of the 'most favourite' cities in the world, Vancouver. From here wildlife and nature beckons through the Rockies, or take a float plane to Vancouver Island for Victoria, the Pacific Rim National Park and the famous Inside Passage. Eastern Canada has some superb attractions too, Niagara Falls of course, but also the delightful French cities of Quebec and Montreal and the stunning coastline of Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island.

AUSTRALIA

AUSTRALIA is the place most people go to visit friends and relations, but while you're there, why not spread your wings and enjoy sailing in the Whitsundays, The Great Ocean Road between Adelaide and Melbourne, Sydney Harbour Bridge, or some fantastic rail journeys such as The Ghan from Adelaide to Alice Springs.

AMERICA

AMERICA has something for every travellers, from fast moving and exciting cities to the slow paced states of Montana, Wyoming and The Dakotas for wonderful scenery in great national parks, with Yellowstone and Mount Rushmore being among the favourites. Spring at Disneyland Florida, summer at the Grand Canyon or for a complete contrast the beaches of Cape Cod, autumn in New England for the fall colours, and winter skiing in Colorado just pick your season and go!
